New Spring Model

Corsets

YOU will need a new corset to give the right lines to the Easter gown. The new spring models of the American Lady, Lyra, Nemo, Warner's Rust Proof and Gossards (front laced) are now here.

The new models show a return of the low bust—almost a girdle effect—with the extreme long skirt and the tapering waist. Our expert fitter will fit you with a corset to suit your figure.

NO CRIME TORUN, SO LAZARUS GOT HIS LIBERTY

Judge Lea Has a Bunch of Fine Specimens in Police Court.

"It is no crime to run and this is evidently a case of arrested development," said Judge Lea in police court this morning when he dismissed Jim Williams and M. Lazarus, arrested on a charge of fighting. Williams said Lazarus had "stood good" for the room rent of two men who had stopped at the Orient rooms on Stanton street and then declined to pay. "There was no fight to it," said Williams, "I hit him and he ran."

Donaciano Hernandez, whose fondness for spirits led him into a trance, was fined $3 on a charge of being drunk.

Joseph Ryan was arrested for being drunk, but he was 54 years old and Irish, so the combination was too strong to warrant his arrest.

Tom Bunte, who sometimes sells pencils, said he took a couple of hot drinks, not water, and they went to his head so that the machinery got out of order and his feet would not work straight. He was fined $1 for his unsteadiness.

As Antonio Santa Ana pleaded guilty to a charge of having imbibed too freely, Judge Lea said: "I will have to chloroform you if you do not discontinue your visits here," and then he placed a $2 sign behind Santa Ana's name on the docket.

John Hanson and Tom Tenton pleaded not guilty to the charge of vagrancy and their cases were passed.

Jim Williams, a negro, pleaded not guilty to the charge of vagrancy, and said he had worked at the G. H. shops last week but was compelled to lay off on account of his feet.

Margie Banks, being a negro who gets into court frequently, said she was no vagrant and her case was passed until this evening, as was that of Chas. Johnson, charged with the same offense.

Jim Hansley, who used to work as a miner, but is badly crippled with rheumatism, said he had asked a man to buy his supper but was not begging. His case was passed until this afternoon.

J. P. Regan, alias "Doc," is so fond of the city jail that he returned there last night to sleep. He was dismissed this morning as it is no offense to sleep in the city jail.

J. O. Porter was arrested on a charge of exceeding the automobile speed limit and will be tried this evening.

Friday evening Frank Lorraine was fined $25 because he had used none too choice language in addressing those who refused him alms.

Frank Gardner and Joe Wilson were fined $10 each on the charge of vagrancy.

BURGLAR LEAVES BULLDOG BEHIND

In Rush to Escape From Dentist's Office, Forgets His Pet.

A burglar, a bull dog and a six-shooter caused Dr. G. A. Rehder to break all speed records getting down the stairs from his office in the Coles block Friday night at 8:30.

A burglar entered the office of Dr. Brown and Galloway, found Rehder there and told him to get out of the way, at the same time making a hip pocket movement. The dentist thought discretion the better part of valor and complied with the request, the dog following him two steps at a time, Rehder shouting all the way down for the police.

The bluecoats, three in number, answered as did two detectives, but the burglar had made his escape down the back stairway.

Dr. C. P. Brown has a white faced bulldog which he may be secured by the owner if he will call at the office. The dog did not manage to catch up with Dr. Rehder in his big dash down the stairs.

Every man whose time is money, will find best suited to his particular needs a policy of insurance against disability or disease issued by the Continental Casualty Company, Chicago.

THREE CONVICTIONS IN EL PASO COURT

One for Bribery, One for Burglary and One for Forgery.

There were two convictions in the 34th district court Friday and one this morning.

W. A. Naill, charged with attempting to bribe assistant city attorney Volney M. Brown, was sentenced to serve two years in the state penitentiary when found guilty by a jury Friday morning.

In the afternoon John Henry Watson, a negro charged with burglarizing Craig's saloon on Mission street and stealing a six-shooter and $20 in money, was given a two year sentence.

This morning R. W. Johnson was convicted on a charge of attempting to pass an order for $10 worth of goods on R. C. Lightbody & Co., to which he had forged the name of Capt. Juan S. Hart. He was also given two years in the penitentiary.

He requested that the court immediately pass sentence and this was done.

For your expressions of sympathy in our deepest sorrow we thank you.
